

THE JK Michaels CONSTRUCTION PROJECT MANAGEMENT

JK Michaels Construction Project Management provides advanced industry knowledge and new skills to ensure that construction projects are completed on time, within budget, to the appropriate quality standard and to exacting safety requirements.

By attending you will:

Learn the total Project perspective on the management of Construction projects from inception to completion.

Learn how to apply business process analysis to the management of projects.

Learn the basic principles of construction project management which will allow participants to apply those principles to their particular management problems.

Review and synthesize the large number of different tools and techniques proposed for improving construction performances, from risk management and value management through to supply chain management quality assurance.

Learn the construction health and safety practices

Learn the construction environmental management processes

Learn the construction financial management processes, cost control, and performance evaluation and report.

Learn the project claim management processes

Place the use of information and communication technology ICT at the heart of Construction project.

For Whom:

Construction Project Managers, Architects, Property Managers, Quantity Surveyors, Civil Engineers.

STANDARD: (PMBOK Construction Extension)

Duration: 5 days.

Time: 9am-5pm

Course fees: N120,000 (exclusive of VAT)